

Maeser Couple Have Four in U. S. Service

Mr and Mrs John N Massey of Measer have three sons and one daughter now serving in the armed forces Enid Massey, seaman second class, WAVES, Sgt Norval Massey, now in France, T-Sgt Garth Massey, in India and Burnell Massey, now in England

Miss Massey enlisted in the WAVES in May and was assigned to Hunter College Brooklyn, New York for her boot training She was then transferred to Coronado Island, San Diego, California At the time of her enlistment she was employed at Eitel McCullough Co in Salt Lake She attended the Uintah High School, and graduated with the class of 1941

Sgt Norval Massey arrived in France shortly after D-Day with the combat engineers His military record dates back to March 1941 when he entered service with the National Guard He was first stationed at San Luis Obispo California He spent a year on the Alcan Highway in Alaska and was then sent to Ft Lewis Washington to train men He embarked for overseas duty in January 1944

T Sgt Garth Massey with the air corps in India entered service in August 1942 He took radio training in Chicago and received his gunner's wings at Harlington Texas He now has the DFC with the oak leaf cluster and the air medal also with an oak leaf cluster

Burnell the youngest brother was one of the first to land in France on D Day being in the second boat He entered service in July 1943 and took his basic infantry training at Camp Wolters Texas He embarked in January this year for overseas duty He was recently wounded and sent to a hospital in England